The short grievance of the petitioner is that no proper investigation is being conducted into a crime registered on the basis of a private complaint filed by her before the learned Magistrate and referred to the police under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C.

2. The learned Public Prosecutor, after taking instructions, submits that the allegation is incorrect. Crime No.196/2007 was registered. A proper investigation was conducted. Final report has been filed on 31/8/2007 before the Judicial First Class Magistrate Court-I, Kollam alleging the offence punishable under Section 498A read with 34 I.P.C against respondents 4,5 and 6, that is accused 1 to 3. The learned counsel for the petitioner agrees and I am satisfied that no further directions need in these circumstances be issued.

3. This Criminal Miscellaneous Case is hence dismissed as unnecessary now, the relief having already been obtained.
